Connecting the New Jersey
Museum Community for 40 Years

The New Jersey Association of Museums

is a nonprofit membership organization serving professionals and museums in the state. The New Jersey Association of Museums (NJAM):

- Facilitates the exchange of information through educational and networking opportunities
- Increases and enhances knowledge of museum practices
- Advocates on behalf of New Jersey museum professionals and museums

PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Receive updates on trends and issues facing the field today through workshops, the website, and social media.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Annual Meeting: a one-day meeting where professionals gather to explore issues, solve problems, share news, and get to know one another.

Workshops: Full- and half-day programs throughout the year on topics relevant to the field.

NETWORKING WITH PEERS

NJAM has three membership categories:

1. Individual Membership

Open to any paid professional, full or part time, of an institution within the state of New Jersey. Independent museum professionals are included in this category.

2. Individual Affiliate

Anyone — including museum volunteers, trustees, retired staff, the public/press, and students — interested in the NJAM purposes, objectives, and programs.

3. Institutional Membership

Open to museums, zoos, aquaria, historic houses, etc.

INDIVIDUAL BENEFITS
